Intersection of 14th and Old Main now open

The intersection of South 14th Street and Old Main is now open. The contractor on the project, Kansas Paving, has placed temporary stop signs on Old Main and the eastern leg of 14th Street. Permanent signs will go in on Old Main next week after the utilities are located. The temporary signs will remain up on 14th Street as long as necessary during construction. Motorists are asked to take special care to follow all posted signs during this project. 14th Street remains closed from Old Main to Anderson.
