Sand Creek Station earns customer loyalty honor

NEWTON — Sand Creek Station Golf Course has been named a runner-up by the National Golf Foundation in its sixth annual Customer Loyalty Awards.

The award is based on surveys of golfers about the overall experience, amenities, staff friendliness, course condition, and whether they would recommend the course to a friend. Sand Creek Station ranked in the top five out of more than 300 courses nationwide in its price category.

“This award shines so much on the special group of employees we have at Sand Creek Station Golf Course and how much hard work they put into the operation every day,” General Manager Chris Tuohey said. “I am so proud of our staff and their accomplishments of providing such a great reputation.”

This is Sand Creek Station’s second year as a runner-up in the Customer Loyalty Awards. The National Golf Foundation reported that the course improved this year in every graded category.

Last month, Sand Creek Station was ranked among Golf Digest’s 2007 America’s Best New Courses under $75. The course was also previously named one of the top 10 new public courses in the country by GOLF Magazine, and the second-best public course in Kansas by Golf Week Magazine. The Jeff Brauer-designed course opened in July 2006.
